The accident, according to reports, occurred when the boy placed a shell in the chamber of the gun, then tried to extract it, only to find the weapon jammed.

In an attempt to dislodge the shell, young Rateau struck the pistol against a stone bench on which he was sitting. The blow caused the gun to explode. The lead bullet hit the boy in the forehead.

With him at the time of the accident were two sisters, Josephine 7, and Jeanne, 4, and his grandmother, Mrs. J. H. Burk.

The Rateau family occuply the summer home, adjoining the Thiel place and near St. Claire's chapel. They had come out from New Orleans for the season only a few days prior to the accident.

As the Echo goes to press Thursday the boy's condition is reported unchanged.

FORMER GOV. CONNER OPENS CAMPAICIN

ORMER Governor Mike Conner has opened his campaign as candidate for the U.S. Senate, for the seat now occupied by Senator Pat Harrison. He chose Mize, located, on the Gulf and Ship Island R. R., as the point and place of beginning of what promises to prove a memorable campaign.

Taking his text from the doctrine of the third party progressives, former Governor Conner opened his campaign in a speech bristling with condemnation of governmental policies and a scathing attack on Senator Pat Harrison.

The ex-governor presented a multiple-point platform to the 500 to 700 who heard his address in the schoolhouse. His planks included: Reduction of the national debt which he de-

Mr. Harriso: There is no longer any doubt. Prosperity is here again.

Facts and figures, carefully gathered by responsible agencies, show that industrial employment levels now approximate those of 1929.

Compared with the so-called normal year of 1926, and taking into consideration the fact that the cost of living is now only 86.6 per cetn of what it was then, present wages, in terms of buying power, are higher than they were in the heydey of the country's prosperity.

New and developing industries have created jobs for 750,-000 men in the past year-and it is estimated that at least 5,-000,000 persons have been put to work in private industry in the past three years.

From nearly every state in the union come reports that skilled men are growing scarcer; that it is more difficult to secure common labor-and that large construction projects are being PAT HARRISON'S PRIENDS SHOUM SCHOOL BUSTE

Helping You use Your Personality

OUR personality and reputation are two of your most valuable assets. You owe it to yourself to get the most out of them. The telephone can help you to do this.

For example: keeping appointments makes a good impression. If compelled to be late or absent from an appointment, telephone the other party and explain, thus avoiding worry and lost time. In countless other ways, you can use local and long distance telephone service to get action—to save time and money—to make your business and social life more orderly, more successful.

> Note: To order a telephone, get in touch with the telephone business office or any telephone employe. For information and rates on long distance telephone service, look in the front pages of the telephone directory or call the "long distance" operator,

White to Arkansas

OVERNOR White will be among The guest at a luncheon for President Roosevett at the home of Harvey Couch, utilities magnate during the executive's visit to Arkansas this week. The governor will head a group of half a dozen prominent Mississippians who will attend the luncheon as special guests of Mr. Couch. His absence from the state for a little more than a day will give Lieut.-Gov. "Billy" Snider his first chance to act as governor. He has been notified of the governor's absence and will "sit in the hot! seat" for a day.

Delegates At Large

Most of the pre-convention politics in the state right now is centered in the selection of the state's fourth delegate at large to the national convention. There is no disagreement, apparently, over the choice of Governor White and Senators Harrison and Bilbo for three of the posts, and at the moment it looks like the fourth place will go to Mrs. Ellen Woodward, as assistant WPA-man Harry Hopkins. Mrs. Woodward is being backed openly by Senator Harrison's friends and the fight in the state convention June

Many of those he taught fill high and responsible positions in all walks of life in New Orleans and this section. All have been his friends and admirers. Born in Hazlehurst, Miss., he now is 71, and he thinks that is too old to teach, and he has done what few public teachers ever do, unless forced by necessity, and that is resign and spend the rest of life in ease and comfort. There are so many interesting things that he will delight to see as he journeys around the circle that we can imagine no more enjoyable and profitable trip he could take than upon which he and Mrs. Trawick are about to em

He is lucky to have been frugel enough to have saved the money for the journey, in light of how cruelly income of teachers has been slashed in recent years.

WAVELAND PURCHASES TRUCK

Municipality of Waveland has purchased a new Ford truck for general utility purpose, the sale made thru the activity of Clem Penrose, of Waveland.

Waveland Board of Mayor and Aldermen announces the early inauguration of collecting garbage and other refuse from house to house on regular schedule days. This is a sanitary mesaure and calculated to give the tax-payers more service.

Since the 1st of June Waveland's motor cycle cop, Norvin Penrose, has been in active commission, preventing speedsters from killing either others or themselves and protecting the public from all possible accident. Several arrests are already of record.

"The motorist that hits me will certainly be sorry," said the dusty pedestrian.

"Why?" asked his companion. "Because," said the other, "I'm carrying a stick of dynamite in my pocket."
